National Rural Crime Action Week. 8-14 Sep 2025

Sorry for the late delivery of this information, it only landed with me today. 6th Sep.

The attached pack contains a lot of information which will continue to be useful to us all over the coming months.

We all live somewhere in Wiltshire, most of us in large urban areas & Cities, some in towns and villages. A few live in the countryside.

Wiltshire is a Rural County, something over 80% of the county is rural, that's why this is important to all of us. For most of us the countryside is very important to how we feel and enjoy ourselves.

Rural crime impacts on us all even if you can't see it from you own window it is happening all around us. Take a few moments to look through the attached information, see if it will help you make a difference to our communities, Rural is where you live, please keep it safe.

The National Rural Crime Action Week is a collective step towards visibility, support, and long-overdue change.

It goes beyond next week.

Thank you for your support.
