INTRODUCTION AND DEFINITIONS

Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. Standing orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use standing orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The standing orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but standing orders may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. These Standing Orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which the Parish Council is subject. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in a council's standing orders.

These Standing Orders do not include Financial Regulations, which are produced as a separate document. Financial regulations are Standing Orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of the Parish Council. The Financial Regulations, as opposed to the Standing Orders of the Parish Council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer.

Standing Orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements. Standing orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively. They do not contain statutory requirements but they are adopted to suit the Parish Councils needs.

The word "Councillor" includes both elected (with or without contest) Councillors and Co-opted Councillors. There is no difference between the two.

Where the term "non-councillor" is used this means a person with a special interest in a project or a person with specialist knowledge who has been invited by the Parish Council to join a Committee, Sub-committee or Working Group because of their expertise or interest. When such an invitation is made by the Parish Council the "non-councillor" must agree to abide by the Code of Conduct adopted by the Parish Council as well as any Terms of Reference adopted by the Committee, Sub-committee or Working Group. The Terms of Reference will stipulate whether such person has any voting rights.

1. RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS

- a. Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b. A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c. A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d. If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e. An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f. If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g. An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h. A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i. If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- j. Subject to standing order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
